PATENT NO.: 7,106,523

DATED : Sep. 12, 2006 INVENTOR(S) : McLean et al.

It is certified that an error appears or errors appear in the above-identified patent and that said Letters Patent is hereby corrected as shown below:

Title page

Abstract, line 12, change "exists" to --exits--

Column 1

Line 43, after "compounds" add --.-

Column 5

After line 6, add the following omitted paragraph: —Another problem with prior art devices is that they are not able to properly focus the light that is emitted from the LED or other light-generating source once it is emitted by the light-generating source. This is a problem because unfocused light might irradiate and thereby irritate sensitive mouth tissues. Unfocused light can also increase the duration of time that is required to cure the light-curable compounds. The present invention overcomes these problems by providing an optical device 10 that is configured for focusing the light emitted by the light-generating source into a desired focus of illumination, as described herein.—
